4. Institutional partnership activities and events were discussed. Wikimedia DC expects to continue holding only virtual activities through the spring and summer of 2021 because of the pandemic. It is expected that there will be enough virtual edit-a-thons and training workshops to keep the Institutional Partnerships Manager fully engaged.

5. Plans for WikiConference North America 2020 were discussed. Mr. Meyer and Ms. Stephenson-Goodknight are supporting the planning of this year’s conference, which will be held virtually from December 11 to December 13. Wikimedia Canada plans to offer sessions in French and various indigenous languages, and Wikimedia Mexico plans to offer sessions in Spanish. Wikimedians from the Caribbean are also expected to participate.

   The conference will include lightning talks and affiliate presentations. A virtual culture crawl will take place on the afternoon of December 11. Virtual receptions will be held on both Friday and Saturday evenings using a social chat room application.
Advance registration for the conference will not be required. There may be some funding available from the Wikimedia Foundation to cover attendees’ childcare or similar costs.

6. Plans for Wikipedia’s 20th anniversary were discussed. Various affiliates and other groups are planning to host activities to celebrate Wikipedia’s 20th birthday in January. Wikimedia DC has not planned any events for January, but may organize anniversary-related events later in the year.

7. Plans for Public Domain Day were discussed. Mr. Fernandez, Mr. Meyer and Ms. Stephenson-Goodknight will evaluate options for organizing a virtual program, potentially in collaboration with another affiliate or with American University.

8. Plans for Women’s History Month were discussed. Mr. Fernandez has identified several worklists that could be used for edit-a-thons or other events.

9. Plans for the Wiki Science Competition calendar were discussed. Mr. Sadowski is finalizing the selection of photographs and writing the captions for the calendar; he will advertise the availability of the calendar at WikiConference North America and will investigate other marketing opportunities.

10. Plans for the 2020 Annual Meeting were discussed. The meeting will be virtual, and will be held on Sunday, December 6. Mr. Lokshin will prepare announcement text for the awards to be presented at the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:59 PM.
